REHABILITATED HAVERHILL BRIDGE OPENED TO TRAFFIC
CARRYING US ROUTE 302 OVER CONNECTICUT RIVER TO NEWBURY, VT

The New Hampshire Department of Transportation announces the completely rehabilitated bridge carrying US Route 302 over the Connecticut River between Haverhill, New Hampshire and Newbury, Vermont has been reopened to traffic. Vehicles began traveling on the rehabilitated bridge at about 8:30 am on Wednesday, July 23.

During the two-year project, traffic has been detoured onto a nearby railroad bridge.

While traffic has resumed on the rehabilitated bridge, work continues on drainage, sidewalks and curbing that is part of the project.

CPM of Freeport, Maine is the general contractor for the $4.5 million project, which has a final completion date of September 15, 2003.
